Step 6. You will need to create a 'Username' and a 'Memorable answer'. The 'memorable question' is a hint for remembering the memorable answer. If you forget your 'memorable answer' you can have your memorable question emailed to you. It will be sent to the email address you put on the registration form.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "User Registration" with a red header. Below the header, a note states: "Note: Mandatory fields are marked with an asterisk(*)". A progress bar at the top indicates three steps: "Personal Information" (completed with a checkmark), "Logon Information" (current step, marked with a red circle containing the number 2), and "Security Information" (marked with a circle containing the number 3). The "Logon information" section is highlighted with a blue header. Below this header, instructions read: "Please enter a username between 5 and 76 characters. If your preferred username is not available, you will be asked to select a". The form contains four input fields: "Username *" (with a text box), "Memorable question *" (with a text box and a blue question mark icon), "Memorable answer *" (with a text box), and "Re-enter memorable answer *" (with a text box). At the bottom left, there are two buttons: a red "Next Step" button and a grey "Cancel" button. A red arrow points from the "Next Step" button down to the text of Step 7.

Step 7. Click on the 'Next Step' button in red above. This takes you to the next screen of the form.

Step 8. Please read the HSBC Data Protection and Privacy Policy statement carefully. You can confirm your acceptance of its contents by choosing the 'Accept' button..

The screenshot shows the 'User Registration' page. At the top, a red header contains the text 'User Registration'. Below this, a grey box contains the following text: 'To proceed with your registration, we require you to read the HSBC Data Protection and Privacy Policy statement. Please review carefully and confirm your acceptance of its contents by choosing the 'Accept' button at the end of the statement.' Below this is a blue header for the 'PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT'. The main text of the policy follows, including a list of bullet points about data collection and use, a section on 'Cookies', and two buttons at the bottom: 'Accept' (in red) and 'Decline' (in grey). A red arrow points from the 'Accept' button in this screenshot to the 'Accept' button in the screenshot below.

Step 9. Click on the 'Accept' button in red above to move to the next screen.

Step 10. Your set up is complete!

The screenshot shows the 'User Registration' page with a red header. Below the header, a blue header reads 'Registration successful'. The main text says: 'Thank you for your interest in HSBCnet. Our client registration team will contact you as soon as we have activated your personal page.' Below this, it lists 'Your username is', 'Your memorable question is', and 'Your security information reset questions are :'. Under the last line, it lists 'Security question 1' and 'Security question 2'. At the bottom left, there is a red button labeled 'Close'.
